

FOLEY'S SHIRTWAISTS VS. DIVVER'S CLAWHAMMERS.

Rival Leaders of the Second Appear at Functions and Bid for Support—Foley Had the Voters and Mixed Ale; Divver Had the Ladies and Champagne.

It was a great night in the Second Assembly District and another fine fight between ex-Judge "Paddy" Divver and Councilman "Tom" Foley came to a show down, and when the smoke lifted Divver had the ladies and Foley the voters.

May 1 is the birthday of "Paddy" Divver, and yesterday he was fifty-six years old. As usual, the P. Divver Association gave him a "surprise" party and incidentally made it a ladies' night at the headquarters, No. 33 Madison street.

The friends of Councilman Foley thought of a different occasion for a big stag, but not in honor of Divver. At the Madison street headquarters the festivities did not begin until nearly

POOR MUST PAY EXTRA 5 CENTS.

Only Nickel Trolley Companies Double Price to Lessen Crowds on "Rush" Days.

The Coney Island and Brooklyn Railroad, the only line that carried passengers from Manhattan to the sea for five cents last year, has raised the fare to 10 cents on Saturdays, Sundays and other holidays, when the travel is always heaviest.

This will result in thousands of dollars additional profit to the company, all of which will come from the pockets of the poor, the tenement-house mothers with their puny babes and all of the little dwellers that crowd to the little seats of seashore on these days to breathe the pure air.

The Coney Island and Brooklyn Railroad still carries for five cents during the weekdays, when, of course, fewer cars are operated, but when the enormous crush comes, then comes also the exaction of the extra fare.

Whether this arbitrary fixing of fares is legal will soon be determined, for it is expected that when the new order goes into effect next Sunday several persons may put it to a legal test.

M'KINLEY VISITS NEGRO COLLEGE

Escorted by Cavalry,
President Sees Sights
of New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, May 2.—President McKinley, accompanied by Gov. Heard and Mayor Capelle, and escorted by mounted police and the Louisiana cavalry, left the St. Charles Hotel to-day for breakfast in his apartments with Mrs. McKinley and proceeded to the Southern University, a negro institution.

At the President entered the grounds of the university he was welcomed with "Hail to the Chief," sung by a chorus of 1,000 school children and accompanied by the student orchestra.

Brief addresses were made by George A. Davis, president of the university, and Ernestine M. Thompson, a bright pupil of the school. The President made a felicitous response, in which he said to the negro children:

"I am glad to know that all over the South, where most of you dwell, the States have provided institutions of learning where every boy and every girl can prepare themselves for useful lives, and if you have these things, you will have success anywhere and everywhere. God bless you."

Five thousand negroes attended the reception, among them the leading members of the race.

The Southern University, the President was driven to the historic Cabildo, facing Jackson Square, where a multitude of negroes had gathered. It was within the Cabildo in the room now occupied by the State Supreme Court, that the transfer was made of the Louisiana Territory by France to the United States.

The President was received by Gov. Heard, the State officials and the members of the Supreme Court promptly at noon, and delivered a brief address. A subsequent address was made from the balcony to an immense assemblage in the streets.

A salute of cannon and the national salute brought the ceremonies to a close.

Queen Find in Big Tree.
(Special to The Evening World.)
KNOXVILLE, Tenn., May 2.—L. C. Cash, while cutting an oak tree four feet in diameter in the mountains of Copek County, found a long black coil of hair held in position by a peg near the center. Examination showed the tree to be three hundred years old and the hair that of a woman.

THIEF SPOILED A HONEYMOON.

Not Only Robbed Mrs.
Hochstadter, but Many Other Women.

(Special to The Evening World.)

CAMBRIDGE, May 2.—A sensation was caused in the Eastman murder trial to-day, when Mrs. Mary Ann Grogan, mother of the man who was shot by the prisoner, was called. She was weak from illness, and was helped by two court officers to the stand. She was accompanied by her daughter.

Mrs. Grogan spoke in a low tone as she said:

"I went to my son Dick's house about June 6, 1900. I was invited to tea and we had finished and sat back from the table. Eastman came in and took some milk from the table and drank it. I spoke to him and he said he took it for his health. Eastman did not speak to Dick."

"Soon after I asked Dick to send for a buggy for me to go home, as I was tired."

"He started out. As he went past Eastman Dick remarked that the days were growing longer, and Eastman said: 'His days are short.' I looked up, astonished, and Lizzie (Grogan's wife) said to Eastman, 'You've been drinking.'"

"Then Eastman again said: 'His days are short.' Eastman, who has stopped taking notes at the trial, watched Mrs. Grogan closely as she testified, but gave no indication that he was affected by her evidence."

GRIEVE FOR THEIR BOY.
Joseph Hickey, a thirteen-year-old boy, who ran away from No. 18 Hubert street on March 21 will return home with his parents' hearts from breaking.

His mother is how in bed, prostrated by the strain of her efforts to find him. His father, working by day, searching the streets by night, has grown weary. Joseph was an only son. He has two elder sisters.

He was a good boy, his parents say, but he did not like school. He was small for his years, had clear skin, blue eyes and brown hair.

IMPULSE DREW BOY TO SUICIDE LIVED RICHLY; WIFE IS POOR.

Cigarette Fiend Tells How He Tried to Resist.

The Complaint Against
John Byron Traver
in Court.

Fashionably dressed, John Byron Traver, who has been living at the Hotel Endicott, said to-day in Yorkville Court that he could not afford to pay his wife enough to live on, as he is not working.

Traver up to a year ago was assistant treasurer of the Barber Asphalt Company. His wife is Olga Heriot Traver, a handsome, well-dressed woman, who used to be an actress. She has two pretty children, five and six years old, with her.

Mrs. Traver has been living with her mother at No. 23 West Fifteenth street. She says her husband left her a year ago.

"He gave me four or five bogus checks," she said, "and he then disappeared. It embarrassed me considerably when the checks came back."

Mrs. Traver was accompanied by her counsel, Joel M. Marx, who said: "The woman has pawned everything she had in a cell in default of a bondsman. Since he left the asphalt company, Traver has been in the office of a brother, Byron Traver, at 23 West Broadway."
